

Famous

Statement

A table named "famous" has two columns called user_id and follower_id. It represents that each user ID has a particular follower ID. These follower IDs are also users of Facebook / Meta. Then find the famous percentage of each user.

Famous Percentage = Number of followers a user has / Total number of users are on the platform.

famous

user_id:	bigint
follower_id:	bigint